CENTRAL TEXAS REGIONAL MOBILITY AUTHORITY

About CTRMA

The Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority is an independent government agency created in 2002 to improve the transportation system in Williamson and Travis counties. Our mission is to implement innovative, multimodal transportation solutions that reduce congestion and create transportation choices that enhance quality of life and economic vitality.

The Mobility Authority was created and operates under the Texas Transportation Code Chapter 370 and is authorized under state law to implement a wide range of transportation systems including roadways, airports, seaports and transit services. The Mobility Authority is authorized to issue revenue bonds to fund projects and can utilize user fees to fund operations and repay bonds.

Board of Directors

The Mobility Authority Board of Directors is comprised of seven local community volunteers who are responsible for setting policies, identifying priority projects and ensuring the agency is operated in an efficient and effective manner.

The Governor appoints the Chairman, and the Commissioners Courts for both Travis and Williamson counties each appoint three members to serve on the Board.

Board members are active members of the community who are appointed to serve two-year terms and are not compensated for their service.

The Position

The Executive Director directs and controls the overall management and operations of the CTRMA; incorporates policy and feedback from the Board of Directors into the operations; manages the agency's interaction with all constituencies in the region it serves. The Executive Director supervises the Chief Financial Officer, Director of Engineering, Director of Operations, Director of Communications and Government Relations, Director of Community Relations, Manager of HR/Fiscal Analyst, and an Executive Assistant.

Responsibilities and Duties of the Executive Director:
